Check out this main-level living ranch in Northridge/Eagleridge neighborhood. Xeriscaped, low maintenance front and back yard with a screened/covered patio in the back for those hot summer days. Walking in you'll be impressed with hardwood floors throughout except for the tile kitchen and dining area. Newer appliances and granite countertops in the kitchen. This well-maintained home features a master with an ensuite master bathroom and its own private sliding glass door with access to the backyard.
