This contemporary home on the hillside features treetop views and outdoor living at its finest, with a huge Keith Zars pool, spa, water feature, and cozy cabana. Each deck, balcony, and outdoor seating area offers something special. There is an outdoor kitchen and fire pit landing for year-round enjoyment. The casita is a great place to take a steam shower, fix a snack, or have a sleepover. At the entry of the home is a large study with built-ins and French doors, adjacent to the dining and living area, with its fireplace, and opening to a screened-in Florida room. The kitchen has plenty of room for gatherings and ample storage, as well as granite countertops, a smooth cooktop, and stainless-steel appliances. From the breakfast room, step out onto the sundeck and enjoy views of the beautiful back yard, with splendid oak trees shading the flagstone steps to the pool area. The generously sized main bedroom has room for a sitting area, dual closets, and opens up to another room with ex...
